

first THE CANADIAN SUMMIT ON CLIMATE ACTION IN FOOD SYSTEMS

SUCCESS IS THE OBJECTIVE OF ALL AGRICULTURAL PRODUCERS, AND IN ORDER TO THRIVE AGRICULTURE NEEDS CUSTOMERS.

The inaugural Canadian Summit on Climate action in Food Systems is hosting major BC food companies, wineries, top chefs, Government policy makers, indigenous and youth thought leaders and consumers who all wish to participate in customer-centric conversations about their health, and the planets health.

North American farmers and the food industry stand to be a powerful force for climate action, attach your brand to the community of problem solvers who are creating truly sustainable options and alternatives for agriculture.
